The Richland Cos. has purchased the Pizza Hut & Wing Street in Corpus Christi. The restaurant is at 2120 South Staples Street directly across from Del Mar College East Campus.

The Richland Cos., a commercial real estate firm based in Houston, has entered the Corpus Christi market with the purchase of a Pizza Hut & Wing Street.

The restaurant sits on 1.1 acres at 2120 S. Staples St. across from Del Mar College East Campus.

"We've had Corpus on our radar for a while," Edna Meyer-Nelson, president and CEO of The Richland Cos., said in an announcement. She called the city the "Texas Riviera."

"With 10,000 plus students across the street, more than 25,000 cars per day and the only Pizza Hut that delivers to the downtown business and hospitality communities, we felt this was a perfect fit for Richland's next acquisition and entry into this growing market."

The Richland Cos. owns and manages 35 properties in four states across the southwestern United States.
