

LANDMARK AWARDS

HBJ reveals winners of 2017 Landmark Awards

Apr 20, 2017, 9:06pm CDT

Nearly 400 businesspeople joined the Houston Business Journal at the Omni Hotel Houston April 20 to celebrate the 2017 Landmark Awards.

HBJ named winners in each of the 19 categories — click through the slideshow to see which real estate projects won.

Click through the slideshow to see the winners of the Houston Business Journal's 2017... more

Winners were selected from a pool of 56 finalists, some of which were honored in multiple categories. Click here to see all of the finalists. Additionally, Edna Meyer-Nelson, president and CEO of Houston-based The Richland Cos., was honored as the Lifetime Achievement award winner.

All of the winners and finalists are featured in a special section in the April 21 weekly edition of the Houston Business Journal. Click here to subscribe.

Projects are recognized for excellence in land planning, design, construction, economics, marketing and management. Nominations were open to all real estate activity occurring in the greater Houston area from Jan. 1, 2016, through Dec. 31, 2016.

Entries were judged on impact to Houston, such as job creation, innovation, best use of land, site plan, development of surrounding neighborhoods, visual plan, amenities and being environmentally friendly.

This year's judges were Jennifer Peek, senior principal and director of Traffic Engineering Services for Walter P Moore; Douglas Demiano, senior vice president of development and acquisitions for PMRG; and Catherine Callaway, senior associate for Kirksey and a 2016 40 Under 40 honoree.

2017 Landmark Awards winners

🏠 1 OF 20 📌 THUMBNAILS

COURTESY IMAGES