

HOUSTON CHRONICLE

Sunday, October 22, 2017 | HoustonChronicle.com and Chron.com | Vol. 117, No. 9 | $4.00 ***

Chance of storm: High 82, Low 55

PEOPLE IN BUSINESS

Shepherd

Lise Maher Shepherd has been named chief financial officer Neuhaus Education Center, a Bellaire-based nonprofit promoting reading success.

Craig A. Vollmers has joined Kelsey-Seybold Clinic as vice president and chief human resources officer.

Vollmers

Jigar K. Deliwala has joined structural and civil engineering firm JQ as senior project manager, buildings.

Franklin Byrd has joined Transwestern as managing senior vice president—corporate operations and finance.

Deliwala

Byrd

John Castilla has been named president of the new Houston office of Welty Construction Co.

M. Boone Smith has joined the the Richland Cos. as director of leasing.

Robert Bruce has been named dean of Rice

Castilla

Smith

University's Susanne M. Glasscock School of Continuing Studies.

McKim & Creed, a national engineering, surveying and planning firm, announced the addition of Corey Campbell as a geomatics project manager. Trey Davis joins the company as a senior CADD technician.

Bruce

Benitta Phillips has joined John Daugherty, Realtors, as a sales associate.

Elysa Nelson has been promoted to vice president at Pierpont Communications.

Campbell