

Realty News Report's Top 10 Stories

1. Houston Job Growth Rebounds in 2017
2. California Firm Buys Houston Building for $24 Million
3. Cotton Moves HQ to CityCentre
4. Hotel Under Development in Fort Worth Stockyards
5. Fred Caldwell Firm Developing Multifamily
6. HP's Houston Campus For Sale
7. Rinkov: Lee & Associates Expanding
8. Nashville Developer Starts Residential Tower
9. Former Macy's Store Sold
10. Edna Meyer-Nelson's Firm Buys Houston Building
+ Plus - Lease Of The Week (NW Houston)

Edna Meyer-Nelson's Firm Acquires Industrial Flex Building

HOUSTON - The Richland Cos. acquired 8100 Westpark, a 74,000-SF industrial flex development in west Houston.

Richland is a Houston-based firm led by Edna Meyer-Nelson. The firm owns 15 Houston properties with a total of 1.9 million SF and owns a total of 35 properties in five states.